Get your Military Relocation Professional Designation!

Help Military and their families relocate with the service of a real estate professional who understands the timetables and needs of the military to make their move easy and stress-free.

The Military Relocation Professional Certification Course educates REALTORS® about working with Active/Veteran U.S. service members and their families. MRP professionals help find housing solutions and take full advantage of available benefits and support involved in military moves and personnel. This includes information on working with VA Loans. For more information visit www.MilitaryRelocationPro.org.
